SEPT. 6  CREECA Fall Roundtable & Reception
Featuring Kathryn Hendley, David Danaher, & Maksim Hanukai

MANON VAN DE WATER  OCT. 18
University of Wisconsin-Madison
“Natalia Sats: Arrest and Exile”

SEPT. 13  ARARAT OSIPIAN
University of Wisconsin-Madison
“Let Me Write a Dissertation for You: Faculty Misconduct, Corruption & Doctoral Degree Fraud in Ukraine”

DONALD PIENKOS  OCT. 25
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
“World War I, Its Impact, and Those Who Made Poland’s Rebirth Happen”
*lecture in Pyle Center, Rm 226

SEPT. 20  STEPHAN RINDLISBACHER
University of Bern
“When Nationalism Meets Soviet Modernization: The ‘Liquidation’ of the Nomads in the South Caucasus, 1921-1936”

EMILY BARAN  NOV. 1
Middle Tennessee State University
“How Jehovah’s Witnesses Became ‘Extremists’: The Strange State of Religious Freedom in Russia”

SEPT. 27  MAX CHESTER
Foley & Lardner LLP
“Beyond Policy: The Practical Realities of Russia-Ukraine-US Commercial Transactions & Litigation”
*lecture in 7200 Lubar Commons, Law School

WOLFGANG MÜNCHAU  NOV. 8
The Financial Times
“Wars’ End?: The Legacy of Migration and Displacement, Europe 1918-2018” Keynote Speaker
*lecture time and place TBD

OCT. 4  PATRICK MICHELSON
Indiana University
“Orthodox Impossible: History, Religion, and the Limits of Studying Russia’s Dominant Confession”

ASPE BINTON  NOV. 15
Virginia Commonwealth University
“Confronting Political Dishonesty: Lessons from Central Europe”

OCT. 11  GRAEML GILL
Kellogg Institute for International Studies
“How Strong is the Russian President?”

“Reports from the Field: Graduate Research in Action” NOV. 29
Featuring graduate students of anthropology, geography, history, Slavic, and political science

CREECA
210 Ingraham Hall, 1155 Observatory Dr.
608.262.3379
events@creeca.wisc.edu

All lectures take place at 4pm in 206 Ingraham Hall unless otherwise specified. Please join us at 3:45 for light refreshments.